

No Grave Could Keep

Words and music by Matt Damico

Intro: | G // | C // | G/B // | Em / D/F# |

Verse 1

G C G/B Em D/F# G Em C
The Maker of all, in a young virgin's womb, the Word, now a baby, cries.
Em D/F# G/B C G/B C D
In humility robed, in the form a slave, the Lord of life come to die.

Verse 2

G C G/B Em D/F# G Em C
The Judge of mankind, now placed on a trial, the guilt of His people now His.
Em D/F# G/B C G/B C D
The righteous one bears these thorns for a crown, that sinners found in Him might live.

Refrain:

C/G G D/F# Em C G D G
Mi - ghty Sa - vior! Death could not hold Him, no grave could keep.
C/G G D/F# Em C G Em D/F# G
Ha - lle - lu - jah! He reigns forever, the ri - sen King!

Verse 3

G C G/B Em D/F# G Em C
Lifted and nailed to a cross where He died, the record of sin, now paid.
Em D/F# G/B C G/B C D
But look for Him not, for the Man is not there, the King is alive, as He said.

Verse 4

G C G/B Em D/F# G Em C
The bride now awaits for her King to appear, when she will in purity rise.
Em D/F# G/B C G/B C D
And on that fair day, His praises we'll sing, our heart's trust beheld with our eyes.
