

No Grave Could Keep

Words and music by Matt Damico

(capo V)

Intro: | C // | F // | C/E // | Am / G/B |

Verse 1

C F C/E Am – G/B C Am F
The Maker of all, in a young virgin's womb, the Word, now a baby, cries.
Am G/B C/E F C/E F G
In humility robed, in the form a slave, the Lord of life come to die.

Verse 2

C F C/E Am – G/B C Am F
The Judge of mankind, now placed on a trial, the guilt of His people now His.
Am G/B C/E F C/E F G
The righteous one bears these thorns for a crown, that sinners found in Him might live.

Refrain:

F/C C G/B Am F C G C
Mi – ghty Sa – vior! Death could not hold Him, no grave could keep.
F/C C G/B Am F C Am G/B C
Ha – lle – lu – jah! He reigns forever, the ri – sen King!

Verse 3

C F C/E Am – G/B C Am F
Lifted and nailed to a cross where He died, the record of sin, now paid.
Am G/B C/E F C/E F G
But look for Him not, for the Man is not there, the King is alive, as He said.

Verse 4

C F C/E Am – G/B C Am F
The bride now awaits for her King to appear, when she will in purity rise.
Am G/B C/E F C/E F G
And on that fair day, His praises we'll sing, our heart's trust beheld with our eyes.
