

Psalm 77: I Will Remember

Intro: E / / / / / | Esus / / / / / | E / / / / / | Esus / / / / / |

Verse 1

E Esus E Esus
 To you, Lord, I cry aloud. I am troubled, hands stretched out.
E A B
 Hear my spirit faint and moan, Comfort my weary, silent soul
A/C# B/D#
 I recall my song of old

Verse 2

E Esus E Esus
 It's your promises I seek, Has your love forever ceased?
E A B
 Will you spurn, forget your grace? Will you in anger hide Your face?
A/C# B/D#
 Has compassion lost its place?

Chorus

Esus E Esus E
 I will remember Your works and Your wonders
Esus E B/D# C#m
 Yes, I will remem – ber all Your deeds.
Esus E Esus E
 Your love is forever, redeeming Your people.
Esus E B/D# C#m A B intro
 And turning your face toward all their need. Your way, O God, is ho – ly.

Verse 3

E Esus E Esus
 I recall your mighty power, Oh what god is great, like ours?
E A B
 You call captives into rest, Leading them in Your righteousness.
A/C# B/D#
 With your arm save from distress

Verse 4

E Esus E Esus
 With a word you parted seas, roamed the earth yet walked unseen
E A B
 poured out water, flashed forth light, crashing the thunder from the skies
A/C# B/D#
 shook the earth with your great might.

Chorus

Esus E Esus E
I will remember Your works and Your wonders
Esus E B/D# C#m
Yes, I will remem – ber all Your deeds.
Esus E Esus E
Your love is forever, redeeming Your people.
Esus E B/D# C#m
And turning your face toward all their need.
A B F#m | E/G# | A | A | F#m | E/G# | A | B |
Your way, O God, is ho – ly.

Chorus

Esus E Esus E
I will remember Your works and Your wonders
Esus E B/D# C#m – B/D# – A
Yes, I will remem – ber all Your deeds.
Esus E Esus E
Your love is forever, redeeming Your people.
Esus E B/D# C#m A B intro
And turning your face toward all their need. Your way, O God, is ho – ly.

© Bethany Breland 2016