

Hope of Every Promise

Matt Damico

♩ = 67

G

Gsus

Em

C

What voice con-tains the pow'r to break the heart of stone, with Whose life can stand in place for those who stand condemned? Whose Now let us cling to Him, for Je - sus is our rest. Lay

4

Em

C

Am

D

strength be - yond the law of old to bring the ex - ile home? When per - fect blood poured once for all and hushed the law's de-mands? And sin a - side, be - hold your king, and run with con - fi-dence. Our

6

G

Gsus

Em

D

faith gives way to lies, when love wi - thin grows cold, when who will plead for us when we a - gain re - bel? Whose fount of faith and hope is Christ who bore our shame, He

8

Em

C

Gsus

G

we would fall and way-ward go whose migh - ty word can hold? The pow'r ass - ures the hope of life can si - lence death and hell? The tas - ted death for all His own, His is the high - est name! In

Pre-Chorus

11

D

Em

C

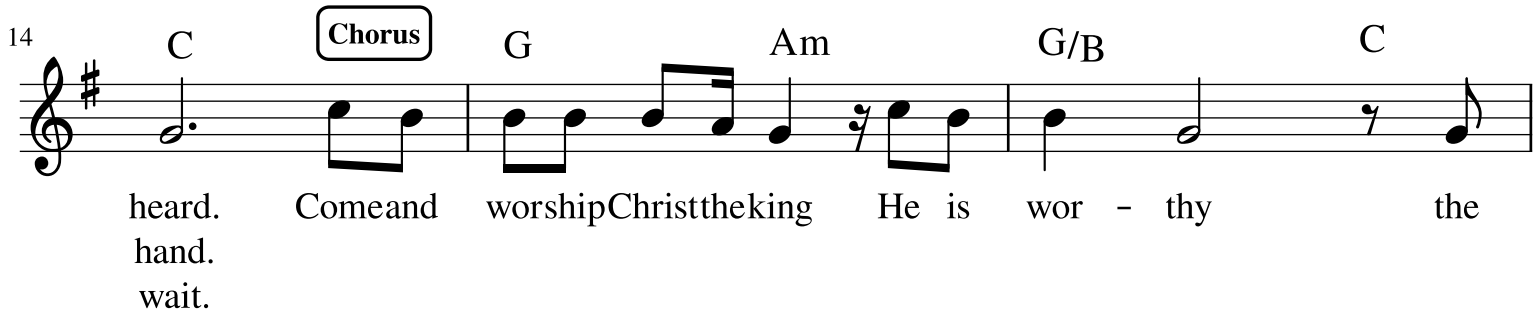

D

Em

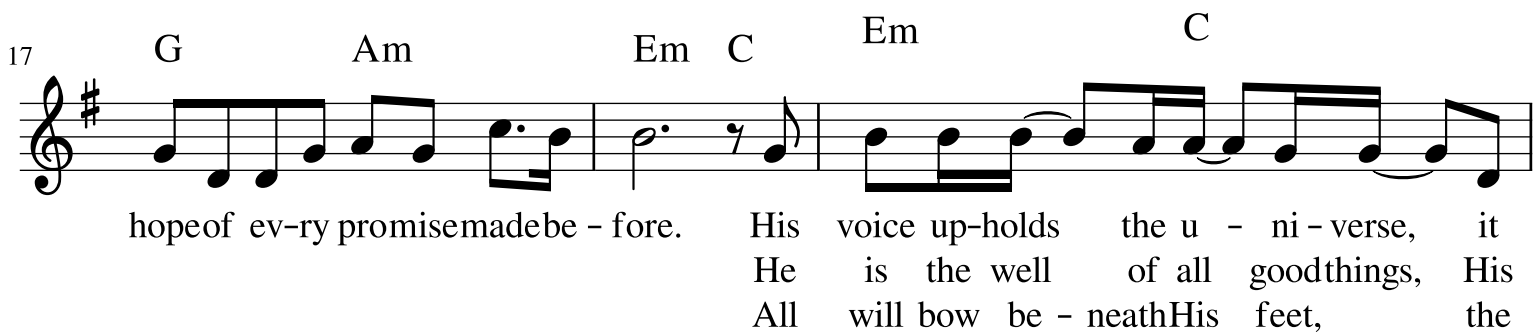

Son who is the full and fi - nal word. His glo - ry song for - e - ver shall be great high priest who was him - self the lamb. Not one of his will e - ver leave his Him we have a king - dom none can shake. Re - turn O king for all Your peo - ple

14 Chorus heard. hand. wait. Come and worship Christ the king He is wor - thy the hope of ev-ry promise made be - fore. His voice up-holds the u - ni - verse, it

17

He is the well of all good things, His All will bow be - neath His feet, the 20

holds our wav' - ring faith se - cure our Christ our an - chor strong and cov - e - nant will end - less be, our Christ who knows our ev' - ry pow'r of death could not de - feat our Christ who reigns in ma - je - sure, need, sty, our on ly hope.

22